Endorsement of Mr. Wayne Wheat

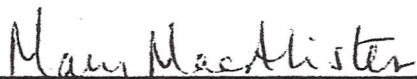

We are writing this open letter of endorsement of the auctioning capabilities of Mr. Wayne Wheat because of the exemplary job he recently did preparing for and conducting an auction of our company's entire inventory of fine British antiques and art.

Mr. Wheat is a thorough professional. He was very generous with his time in preparing for our auction, and provided many, many useful ideas. He displayed lots of personal initiative and resourcefulness. His conduct of the auction itself, in our opinion, brought the maximum possible value at that time for the goods sold. His charges were most fair and reasonable.

We would also add that his wife, Kathryn, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Sue Wietkoswki, provided equally competent clerking and cashier services, respectively.

Considering that the purpose of the auction was to raise funds for research into Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (a "charity function"), Mr. Wheat's energetic and enthusiastic work on the project is all the more noteworthy.

We would not hesitate to recommend Mr. Wheat's salesmanship and auctioning abilities to anybody considering working with him.
